The Prinz Law Office Launches Innovative New Payment Plans to Aid Cash-Strapped Entrepreneurs and Businesses

The Prinz Law Office has announced the launch of several innovative new payment plans to aid cash-strapped entrepreneurs and businesses who are struggling in the current economic climate.

The first plan will enable entrepreneurs to pay small hourly fee or deposit up-front on legal work and to pay the balance in equal monthly installments over periods of 6, 12, 18, or 24 months, at their election. The second plan will enable small businesses and companies of all sizes to retain significant discounts on new legal services by agreeing to pay a predictable monthly fee over a period of six or twelve months, at their election. It also provides a “rollover” option for unused attorney hours. The plans are effective immediately on all new business matters and will continue through January 1, 2011.

Managing Principal Kristie Prinz stated, “The ongoing credit crunch has put legal services out of reach for many businesses. These plans are designed to fill an unmet need in the legal and business communities.”
